

CREATING MOMENTS OF MATH THROUGHOUT THE DAILY ROUTINE

WEDNESDAY OCT 18TH
5:45 PM -7:45 PM

Community Learning
Center @ the Library
305 S Michigan St,
South Bend, IN 46601
Training room D

Food will be provided

Scan this code to book your seat!

Having many opportunities to see and talk about math promotes early mathematical development. Children build math sense and language skills during specific planned math activities but, mathematical learning can also occur by integrating activities into all parts of the daily routine

In this workshop teachers will learn easy-to-implement strategies to support early mathematical learning. These strategies focus on number sense and operations, geometry, measurement, algebra, and data analysis offering teachers ideas for fun and engaging activities to use throughout the day.