

Mathematics KDIs
Follow up reflection questions

1. Here is why I know KDIs are 'key' to my teaching:

2. Here is one example of how I know children are gaining mathematic knowledge through play and interactions with materials and other people:

3. Here is how I will remember to include all of the ingredients of active learning in my planning for all KDIs, including mathematics:

4. Here are some materials I will provide for children to encourage mathematical learning:

5. Here is how I will provide children opportunities for practicing mathematics in a positive and encouraging way:

6. Here is one activity that will help the children communicate their own ideas about mathematics:

7. Here are two interaction strategies I will use to support mathematics in the classroom:

8. Here is how I will model and guide the use of new mathematical materials in the classroom: